

31/3/50

Association for Library Collections and Technical Services (ALCTS)
Publications

Books in the History of Cataloging and Classification , 1773-1933

Box 1:

Bodlien Library, Oxford, Rules for Author-Catalogues, 1914

Cambridge University Library, Rules for the Catalogues of Printed Books, Maps, and Music, Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 1927.

Cataloguing Rules Author and Title Entries, Compiled by Committees of the American Library Association, and of the Library Association: 1908.

Cleveland Public Library, Filing Rules for the Arrangement of the Dictionary Catalogs of the Cleveland Public Library, 1922.

Guppy, Henry, Rules of the Cataloguing of Incunabula, Second Edition, London: 1932.

Harris, William T., Essay on the System of Classification.

Hitchler, Theresa, Comparative Cataloging Rules: 20 Points in 10 Codes Briefly Explained, New York: 1903.

Instruktionen für die Alphabetischen Kataloge der Preuszischen Bibliogtheken, Berlin: 1915

Lacey, Rev. William B., The Utility of Apprentices Libraries: A Sermon Delivered in St. Peter's Church in the City of Albany, 22nd. Feb. 1822, Albany: 1822.

Nicholas, Sir Harris, Animadversions on the Library and Catalogues of the British Museum,
London: 1846

The Old Librarian's Almanack, 1773. Reprint. Edited John Cotton Dana and Henry W. Kent, 1909: Elm Tree Press, Woodstock Vermont.

Richardson, Ernest Cushing, The Use of Printed Cards in Cataloging: Princeton University
Library Practice, 1890 to 1920, Washington, DC: American Library Association
Committee on Bibliography, 1933

Rules for Compiling the Catalogues in the Department of Printed Books in the British Museum, 1906

Rules for Compiling the Catalogues in the Department of Printed Books in the British Museum, 1927

Van Hove, Julien, Ferdianad Remy, and Jean F. Vanderheijden, Règles Catalographiques a l'Usage des Bibliothèques de Belgique, Brussels: 1933