JN.1.6 ¹/₂

W[illia]m Maclure, [Lapland]. To Joseph Neef, Philadelphia. March 18, [1810?], 2 pp.

The internal evidence bearing upon the probable date of the letter includes the following statements: "I am amongst the Laplanders ... not far from the polar circle where the cold ... [is] vibrating between 16 & 26 [degrees Celsius] now the 18th March"; and "I dont approve of ... the message to Congress of the 3d Janu[ar]y last the present state of Europe is such that no exertion of ours can change one tittle of their commercial regulations which has becorae a principall [sic] weapon in the prosecution of the War... all our preparations either military or naval [sic] must be a dead loss of the money and an unprofitable increase of executive power." The message referred to would seem to be Madison's of 3 Jan. 1310.
