I. Illinois Yearly Meeting, 1875-2022

The records of the Illinois Yearly Meeting are arranged into subseries as follows:

The Administrative Documents subseries (1964-2004, 0.2 cubic feet) consists of materials that define how meetings and activities should be handled, such as handbooks, guides, and information on changes to the meeting.

The Clerk's Records subseries (1875-2007, 0.5 cubic feet) includes the records of the Clerk of the Meeting, although much of the Clerk's correspondence is arranged instead in the Correspondence series. Documents in this series include reports, records relating to marriages and deaths, pastoral counseling, and legal issues, and correspondence regarding various national organizations.

The Committees subseries (1930-2010, 1.7 cubic feet) includes minutes and other meeting materials from the various committees of the Yearly Meeting. One exception is financial committees, whose records may be found in the Treasurer's Records subseries.

The Correspondence and Programs subseries (1951-2008 and 2022, 1 cubic foot) includes general correspondence regarding the meeting as well as correspondence relating to specific events, activities, or concerns. It also includes formal epistles.

The Friends Schools and Colleges subseries (1963-1991, 0.2 cubic feet) contains records and publications produced by various Friends educational institutions as well as correspondence documenting the Yearly Meeting's relationship with them.

The Junior Yearly Meeting subseries (1959-1997, 0.2 cubic feet) consists of records documenting the meetings of young people who gathered for the Illinois Yearly Meeting as the "High School Friends Group" or "Junior Yearly Meeting," as well as related groups and events.

The McNabb Buildings subseries (1959-2012, 0.5 cubic feet) includes records regarding the planning, custodial responsibilities, and site development for the Illinois Yearly Meeting's McNabb Buildings. This includes materials from committees focusing on this work.

The Membership and Attendance subseries (1875-2018, 0.4 cubic feet) includes attendance and membership records, including mailing lists and directories.

The Minutes subseries (1875-2022, 2 cubic feet) primarily consists of the published volumes of minutes of the Illinois Yearly Meeting.

The Miscellaneous and Ephemera subseries (1894-2006, 0.2 cubic feet) includes calendars, quiet signs, and other miscellaneous materials.

The Photographs subseries (circa 1890-circa 1990, 0.2 cubic feet) consists of miscellaneous photographic images in various formats.

The Publications and Writings subseries (1908-2022, 1.7 cubic feet) includes runs of the Among Friends newsletter and the Jonathan Plummer Lectures, as well as various individual pieces. Several publications relate to the history of the Illinois Yearly Meeting, but this subseries also includes general works on Friends' perspectives, practices, and concerns.

The Social Concerns subseries (1959-2003, 0.5 cubic feet) consists of correspondence and reference material on various domestic and international social concerns. It includes mailings and publications from various organizations that may duplicate materials in Series V, but also includes committee materials and correspondence related to the Illinois Yearly Meeting in particular as well some reports to the Yearly Meeting about the work of various national organizations.

The Treasurer's Records subseries (1950-1997, 5 cubic feet) includes financial records, correspondence, committee materials, and reports.

The Walden Gathering subseries (1983-1997, 0.4 cubic feet) contains records documenting this "twice-yearly get-together of the small Meetings and Worship Groups in northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin, west of Chicago." Records include administrative documents, correspondence, planning materials and schedules, pamphlets, and other materials.

Records from the Illinois Yearly Meeting were deposited in the Library beginning in 1977. Items from this initial deposit were microfilmed and in some cases have been arranged separately as a "Part 1" of the subseries, with subsequent materials being arranged in "Part 2." In smaller subseries, a note indicates microfilmed documents. The inventory was last updated in August 2023.

II. Quarterly Meetings, 1828-2015

Blue River, 1828-2015

Established 1819 under the Ohio Yearly Meeting, the Blue River Quarterly Meeting was originally based near the Blue River in southern Indiana. Over time, however, its geographic scope shifted westward into Illinois, and in 1875 the Blue River Quarterly Meeting joined with the Prairie Grove Quarterly Meeting (centered in Iowa) to form the Illinois Yearly Meeting. (For more information see Peter Lasersohn, "A Brief History of Blue River Quarterly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends," 2007.)

The initial accession of materials from the Blue River Quarterly Meeting contains records dating from 1828-1975 and includes minutes of the quarterly sessions and minutes of the meetings of women, and of ministers and elders. Also located here are financial records, papers concerning the Blue River Quarterly Conference of First Day Schools, and State of the Society Reports for the constituent monthly meetings.

Later accessions of materials dating from 1952-2015 also consist primarily of minutes, but also include reports, correspondence, directories, and other materials.

The records of the Blue River Quarterly Meeting have been arranged in two parts by date of acquisition. The records in Part 1 were deposited in in 1977 by the Illinois Yearly Meeting along with those of the Yearly Meeting and the Fox Valley Quarterly. These records have been microfilmed. The records in Part 2 were donated to the Library in subsequent years, most recently in 2015, and have not been microfilmed.

Chicago Area, 1914-2003
(Fox Valley, Chicago, and Metropolitan Chicago)

In 1952, the Blue River Quarterly Meeting was reorganized into two smaller quarterly meetings, with Fox Valley encompassing the northern part of the Illinois Yearly Meeting area, including Chicago, and Blue River encompassing the southern and central regions. At this time, the Western Yearly Meeting also had its own quarterly meeting in the Chicago area, the Chicago Quarterly Meeting.

By the late 1950s, the Fox Valley Quarterly and Chicago Quarterly had begun to hold a joint session, meeting together despite different Yearly Meeting affiliations. In 1969, in part due to restructuring at the Yearly level, Chicago-area Friends decided to replace the Chicago-Fox Valley Quarterly Meeting with the Metropolitan Chicago General Meeting, which included all monthly meetings in the area, whether affiliated with the Illinois Yearly Meeting, Western Yearly Meeting, or both. The Metropolitan Chicago General Meeting first met in early 1970. (For more detail, see Part 2: Chicago Area, General Meeting Minutes, 1969-1970.)

Materials from these various Quarterly and General Meetings are often intermixed within these records, despite the title each group was assigned upon the initial acquisition. The collection includes financial records, minutes, publications, reports, and other materials. In addition to records for the Quarterly and General Meetings, Part 2 includes records relating to the Friends School of Chicago.

These records are arranged in four parts by date of acquisition or accession. Part 1 was deposited in the Library under the title of "Fox Valley Quarterly" in 1977 by the Illinois Yearly Meeting along with records for the Yearly Meeting and Blue River Quarterly. These records have been microfilmed. Parts 2 (under the title of "Chicago Area") and 3 (under the title of "Metropolitan Chicago General Meeting") were copied in 1979 and 1980, respectively, with the permission of Louis E. Jones. Part 4 contains materials donated in subsequent years relating to these Quarterly and General Meetings.

Chicago-57th Street, 1877-2000

This subseries includes minutes, publications, reports, and other records of the 57th Street Monthly Meeting in Hyde Park, Chicago, as well as its predecessor, the Chicago Monthly, often referred to as the Central Meeting. The Chicago Monthly Meeting was formally organized in 1867 and affiliated with the Illinois Yearly Meeting in 1878. The 57th Street Monthly Meeting was established in 1931 under the Chicago Quarterly following a merger of Orthodox and Hicksite groups. The meeting is affiliated with both the Illinois Yearly and Western Yearly Meeting.

These records are arranged into three parts. Part 1 contains materials deposited by the Illinois Yearly Meeting in 1977 along with records for the Yearly Meeting and Blue River Quarterly. Part 2 was copied in 1979, along with records for various other Chicago Monthly and Quarterly Meetings, with the permission of Louis E. Jones. Part 3 is composed of materials donated to the Library from the 57th Street Meeting since 1979.

This subseries includes minutes, publications, reports, correspondence, and other records of the 108th Street Monthly Meeting in Morgan Park, Chicago. The Orthodox Chicago Monthly Meeting was formally organized in the 1860s and remained after the establishment of the 57th Street Monthly Meeting in 1931. The meeting moved to its 108th Street location in 1949.

This subseries contains records copied with the permission of Louis E. Jones in 1979 as well as original materials donated in subsequent years.

Note that Earlham College is the primary repository for records of the (Orthodox) Chicago Monthly/108th Street Meeting, along with other meetings affiliated with the Western Yearly Meeting.

Clear Creek (McNabb, Illinois), 1841-2016

The Clear Creek Monthly Meeting was established in 1841 under the Blue River Quarterly.

Records dating from 1841 to 1971 in Part 1 deal with the origins of the meeting, attitudes concerning slavery, temperance, and war. The records include minutes of the monthly meetings, meetings of women, and meetings of Ministers and Elders. Included also are records of memberships, births, deaths, weddings, and burials. Deeds for the land for the Meeting House and Cemetery are also included as are other cemetery records, specifications for the Meeting House, and the papers of the First Day School and the Young Friends Association.

Records dating from 1948 to 2016 in Part 2 consist of minutes, reports, correspondence, and other materials.

The records are arranged in two parts by date of acquisition. The records in Part 1 were donated in 1977 by Clear Creek Monthly Meeting and have been microfilmed. The records in Part 2 were donated to the Library in subsequent years and have not been microfilmed. The minutes from 1975-2016 were donated by Grayce Mesner in 2016.

These records reflect the origins and development of the Downers Grove Monthly Meeting. Materials from the 1957-1977 period include extensive records of both minutes and treasurer's reports as well as reports of various committees, papers concerning two refugee families, policies and procedures, Quaker views on a number of issues, both political and non-political, membership, and other miscellaneous items. The 1980s are documented primarily through the Meeting's newsletter as well as correspondence and other miscellaneous records. The 1990s and 2000s are documented substantially through the Ad Hoc Accessibility Committee records, Restoration Task Force (relating to the issue of same-sex unions) records, and documents regarding meetinghouse and grounds, particularly its construction and landscaping. The Downers Grove records also include directories, photographs and slides, correspondence related to membership and other issues, and miscellaneous reports, publications, and other documents from various time periods.

Records were initially transferred to the Library from the as photocopies in 1980. Subsequent transfers have included the original documents. The Library received Downers Grove records from various individuals in 1992, 1993, 2013, 2015, 2018, and 2022. Also included are materials copied in 1979 with the permission of Louis E. Jones from a collection of Chicago-area Friends Quarterly and Monthly Meetings records. The description and inventory were last updated in September 2023.

St. Louis (Missouri), 1939-1991

The St. Louis Monthly Meeting began in 1939. In 1941 it was officially established as a monthly meeting under the Friends Fellowship Council. It became part of the Blue River Quarterly Meeting and Illinois Yearly Meeting in 1946.

The initial accession of materials from the St. Louis Monthly Meeting consists of records dating from 1939-1976 and includes minutes, treasurer's reports, state of society reports, records of membership, correspondence, and other materials. Later accessions, dating from 1952-1991, have also included newsletters, directories, correspondence, and event materials.

The records of the St. Louis Monthly Meeting have been arranged in two parts by date of acquisition. The records in Part 1 were deposited in in 1979 by the St. Louis Monthly Meeting and have been microfilmed. The records in Part 2 originate with various donations of records, such as those from the Illinois Yearly Meeting, and have not been microfilmed.

Thorn Creek/South Suburban (Park Forest, Illinois), 1958-2003

The Thorn Creek Monthly Meeting was organized in 1973, under the care of Downers Grove Monthly Meeting. A year later, it was formally accepted into Illinois Yearly Meeting.

The bulk of Thorn Creek's records date from 1975 to 1995. They include committee materials, correspondence, minutes, reports, collected publications, financial records, and other materials. Also included is some documentation from its predecessor, the South Suburban Monthly meeting, which existed from about 1952 to 1962.

Paul Buckley donated the records of the Thorn Creek Monthly Meeting to the Library in 2011. These were then integrated with existing records for the Thorn Creek Monthly Meeting, which may have been donated as part of larger deposits of records from the Illinois Yearly Meeting.
