

Finding Aid/Contents List

Title: Activism Ephemera Collection

Collection ID: MSS00094

Scope and Contents: This is an artificial collection purchased by the Rare Book and Manuscript Library in one lot from Skyline Books in 2000. The collection consists primarily of paper ephemera and books, along with music records related to activist movements in the United States. Included here are paper ephemera related to Angela Davis, the Diggers, the Rainbow People's Party (formerly known as the White Panthers), the Yippies, Situationist International and many others. To find related books, use the online catalogue and search for "Activism Ephemera" with RBML as the location or contact our library about other activism material.

Arrangement: Collection is arranged into two series: (1) Paper Ephemera and (2) Audiovisual Materials.

Extent/Size: 2 boxes (.75 cubic ft)

Languages: English, Dutch

Access: Open to researchers.

Use/Restrictions: The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study scholarship or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the order would damage materials or involve violation of copyright law.
