

8/11/20

Agriculture

Home Economics

Isabel Bevier Papers, 1879-1942, 1945-55

Box 1:

Plymouth Union School Grade Records, 1877-78

Correspondence, 1879, 1881, 1884-89

Teacher's Certificate, Wooster letters of recommendation

University of Wooster Grade Reports, 1881-85

Albert W. Smith, 1890

Case School of Applied Science, Harvard, 1891

1892

Chicago Columbian Exposition, 1893

Clipping on "Nutrition Investigation" publication, 1897

Household Science Department, 1900

John A. Brashear, 1902, 1904

Liberty H. Bailey, 1906

School Hygiene Congress, London, newspaper clippings, 1907

Letter to Mrs. I. S. Raymond on sewing, 1907

1908

Eugene Davenport, 1909

Experimental House

Farmer's Institutes

Resignation, travel

Texas offer, 1910

Household Science Enrollment, 1911

Enrollment, extension; Letterbook, 1912

Departmental problems, 1913

Eugene Davenport, 1914

Edmund J. James, 1915

Household Science Extension Report, September 1914-September 1915

Staffing, 1916

Household Science Extension Report, September 1915-September 1916

Extension Report, 1916-17

Letterpress copybook (January 1911-July 1912) of Isabel Bevier containing copies of letters sent to officers of the American Home Economics Association, the National Education Association and Association of Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations concerning Miss Bevier's election as president of the A.H.E.A. conferences, meetings and joint committee assignments involving the nomenclature and structure of national organizations relating to home economics and household science. Correspondents include Mary H. Abel, Benjamin R. Andrews, C. B. Connelley, Helen L. Johnson, George P. Knox, Dr. F. C. Langworthy, Alice P. Norton, Jenny Snow, Dr. A. C. True and Martha Van Rensselaer.

Box 2:

Food Administration, 1917
 Departmental budget
Diaries, 1917-20, 1922, 1924
Woman's Work Manuscript, 1918
Extension Report, 1917-18
Departmental and Extension Reports, 1919
Resignation, curriculum, 1920
 Appointment of successor, 1920-22
 January-March, 1921
Resignation, curriculum, 1920 (continued)
 Bevier Portrait Fund and Retirement, May, 1921
 May 25-December, 1921
Eugene Davenport, 1922
Biographical, 1923
Emeline S. Whitcomb, 1924
University of Arizona, 1925
Nelly Goldthwaite, 1926
European travel, 1928
Home Problems Conference, Detroit, Michigan, April 18-20, 1927

Box 3:

Italian trip, April-August 1927
1928
Outlook and Adjustment Conference Material, 1928-29
1929
Outline for Farm Family, Fannie Brooks for Miss Bevier, ca. 1929
Bevier anecdotes, alphabetical by correspondent, 1929-37 (originals in Lita Bane Papers)
1930

Box 4:

Diary, travel documents, 1931
 Azores, Belgium, England, France, Germany, Greece, Italy, Near East, Netherlands, North
 Africa, Switzerland-Geneva, Turkey
International Agricultural Congress, Prague, 1931
1932-33
Past Presidents of American Home Economics Association, Ames, Iowa, 1934
Diary, clippings, 1935

Box 5:

75th birthday, November 1935

A-F, G-L, M-R, S-Z

Correspondence, clippings (5 folders), 1936-40

Diary, 1940

1941

Obituaries and Memorial Tribute, 1942

Obituaries in journals, March-June, 1942

Articles, programs, recollections and speeches about Miss Bevier, 1917, 1921, 1923, 1928, 1931, 1935

Biographical

Box 6:

Photographs

Isabel Bevier, house and family

Groups

Friends (alphabetical)

Exhibits

Buildings, laboratories, room

Cafeteria, ca. 1920

Food and table settings

Bevier, published articles, 1898, 1903-04, 1910

"The New Housekeeping" in Woman's World on bread, meats, vegetables and meals,
October 1914-June 1915

Published articles, 1910, 1913-20, 1924, 1928, 1934, 1940

Box 7:

Books

Lesson paper for The House (Chicago, 1904)

The Home Economics Movement, Parts 1 and 2 by Bevier and Susannah Usher (Boston, 1906)

The House by Bevier (Chicago, 1907)

Illinois Home Economics Handbook (Urbana, 1923)

Home Economics in Education by Bevier (Philadelphia, 1928)

The Story of Isabel Bevier by Lita Bane (Peoria, 1955)

Miss Bevier Quotations (1942)

Books by Ellen H. Richards

First Lessons on Minerals (1889)

The Cost of Living (1899)

The Cost of Shelter (1905)

The Art of Right Living (1907)

Sanitation in Daily Life (1907)
Euthenics (1910)

Box 8:

Books

The Life of Ellen H. Richards by Caroline L. Hunt (Boston, 1912)
Changes in the Food Supply and their Relation to Nutrition by Lafayette B. Mendel (New Haven, 1916)
Food Saving and Sharing by Eva M. Tappan (New York, 1918)
 Bound manuscript copy of "The History of the Department of Home Economics at University of Illinois, 1900-1921" by Isabel Bevier
 Household Science Announcements, 1900, 1905, 1908-10, 1912, 1916
 Annual letter to the home economics girls, 1914, 1917-18, 1934
 Household science extension demonstration and course announcements, 1913-17, 1927
 School of Housekeepers announcements and materials, 1908-17
 Domestic Science Syllabi for high schools, 1908-21, and outline for elementary schools, 1915

Box 9:

Household Science graduate work, 1906
 Nursing, 1908
 Isabel Bevier Memorial lectures on home economics, 1945, 1947
 Household Science staff publications, A-G, H-W, 1910, 1912, 1914-22, 1929, 1938
The Illinois Agriculturalist, February 1908

Box 10:

Home economics publications, not Illinois, 1906-15
 1917-27
 1928

Box 11:

Home economics publications, not Illinois, 1929-35
 School and society, 1921
 Bevier manuscripts
 "The Acts of the Pilgrims," June 24-September 8, 1896
 "Household Science in a State University," Farmers Institute - Jacksonville, 1900
 Household Science, 1901, 1903
 "One Phase of New Education," November 1901, April 14, 1902
 Notes and References, 1902, 1906, 1908

"Studies in Bread Making," ca. 1905
 "New Education," Indianapolis, 1905
 Lake Placid, July 1905
 Letter to the Illini, December 1905
Illinois Press Bulletin, December 11, 1905
 The Woman's Building and Addition, 1905-08
 Home Economics-Cornell, March 1906
 Household Science, April 30, 1906
 "Color," June 19, 1906
 "Home Economics in the College Course," Baton Rouge, November 1906
 Household Science, University of Illinois, 1906-07
 "Household Arts," 1907
 "Food Problems for the Ordinary Housekeeper," Quincy, 1907
 "The Farm Home," Ohio Farmer, November 1907
 Notes on art, 1908
 "The Family," 1908
 Home Economics in Schools and Colleges, 1908
 "Some Present Day Problems in Biological Chemistry," 1908
 "Household Science at Illinois," January 1908, February 1909

Box 12:

Bevier manuscripts

Two papers on Woman, one on Art in Literature, 1908, 1912
 Development of Home Economics, 1908-08
 "Theory and Practice in Jelly Making," March 3, 1909
 Early History of Domestic Science at Corvallis, Oregon, 1910
 "Home Economics and the Home," Richmond, Indiana, 1910; Glendale, Ohio, 1911
 The Family, 1911
 "Science in the Home," 1911
 "College Women and Home Economics," Glendale College, February 10, 1911
 "Home Economics in the High Schools and University," Chicago, March 25, 1911
 "Household Science in the University," spring 1911
 "Home Economics in 1912"
 Home Economics Association, Washington, D.C., 1912
 "Opportunities and Obligations of Home Economics," Topeka, 1912; Ypsilanti, 1913; Terre Haute, 1916; Detroit, 1916
 "Dietetic Standards for Incomes of $500, $1000, and $2000 per year," Chicago, 1912
 Review, "A Book of Distinctive Interiors," 1913
 "Opportunities and Obligations of Home Economics," Ypsilanti, 1913
 "Home Economics and the Education of a Girl," Ghent Conference, May 20, 1913
 Lectures on the Home, June-July 1913

Food-1913, A Course in California, June-July 1913
 The House-Bevier-California, 1913
 "Some Points in Home Sanitation," Eureka, November 4, 1913
 "Home Economics in a Liberal Education," Columbus, Mississippi, February 26, 1914
 "Vocations for Household Science Graduates," Agriculturalist, April 1914
 Articles for Woman's World, October 1914-June 1915
 Sherman's Food Products - a Review, January 22, 1915
 "What Kind of Women Does the World Want," Agriculturalist, June 1915
 The Family, 1915-17
 "Opportunities and Obligations of Home Economics," January 5, February, March 17, 1916
 Development of Home Economics, Home Economics Journal, November 1916
 "Home Economics Movement," 1916-17
 Home Economics 8, course notes and outlines, 1916-18
 Home Economics in its Relation to Vocational Education, ca. 1917
 "Housekeeping," 1917

Box 13:

Bevier manuscripts

Household Science, cafeteria, reconstruction, March 1-5, 1917
 "An Experiment in Teaching Food Values," July 12, 1917
 Farm Home, "Problems and Opportunities of Farm Life," Columbus, Ohio, November 1917
 "Food Administration," November 14, 1917-18
 "Home Problems from a New Standpoint," "Business of Housekeeping," 1917-23
 Notes on World War I, ca. 1918
 Conservation - Springfield, 1918
 Conservation outline, United States Food Administration Bulletin, February 1, 1918
 "Wrong Kind of Criticism," ca. May 1918
 "Home Economics in the Present Crisis," Chicago, June 1918
 Home Economics 13 and Female Education, 1918-20
 "The Extension Work and its Relation to Home Economics Movement," 1919
 Sanitary House, Home Economics 8, 1919
 Vocations Open to Women Trained in Home Economics - Illini, January 30, 1919
 After the War Message - Farmer's Institute, February 20, 1919
 "Jelly Making," March 3, 1919
 Animal Husbandry, March 15, 1919
 "Illinois Scheme for Extension Work with Women," November 1919
 Bevier Portrait Material, 1919-21, 1937
 Jacksonville, Illinois, January 14, 1920
 Dietary Studies, Home Economics Journal, February 1920
 "Some Contributions of the Land Grant Colleges to Home Economics," Ames, June 8, 1920
 "The Land Grant College and the Education of Women," October 14, 1920

Notes and references, 1921

"Home Economics in the Land Grant Colleges," 1921

"Homemaking and Citizenship," January 19-21, 1921

Journal of Home Economics, August 1921

University Assembly - Los Angeles - November 9, 1921; Club, Inglewood March 15, 1922

"Larger Relationships of Home Economics," 1922

California Cost of Living, May 1922

"Easy Steps in Budgeting," November 27, 1922

"Education of the Girl," 1923

"Home Economics and the New Home," St. Paul, November 2, 1923

"Contributions of Land Grant Colleges to Home Economics," Purdue Semi-Centennial, May 1, 1924

Box 14:

Bevier manuscripts

"Twenty-five Years of Home Making," November 1924

"Back to the Homemaker," ca. 1925

Notes on Architectural History, ca. 1925

"All in the Day's Work," January 20, 1926

"Old Problems for New Home," November 11, 1927

Blueprints of Champaign home

"Homemaking," 1928

For Klein, Bureau of Education, Washington, D.C., 1928

My Early Training, 1928

Home Economics Association, 1928

"Yesterday and Today in Homemaking," February 15, 1928

Chapter from Lives of Leaders, May 2, 1928

"Extension Old and New," May 22, 1928

"Development of the Farm Home," September 1928

Adjustment Conference, October 1928

Mrs. Richards' Relation to Home Economics Movement, Vassar, January 1929

"Bertha Terrill," March 6, 1929

"Study of Home Economics Extension," March 20, 1929

"The Planning of Meals," April 19, 1929

"Your Inheritance in Home Economics," May 2, 1929, Iowa City

"Homemakers Plan," Princeton, September 20, 1929

"The Farm Home," October 15, 1929

"The New Farm Home," 1929

"Professional Attitudes in Home Economics," March 29, 1930

Nutrition, July 1930

Address before American Home Economics Association, February 4, 1932

"Revaluations," Michigan State, May 18, 1932
 Home Economics - Extension and Beginnings, 1932-35
 "A Look Outside," Gurnee - March 7, 1933
 "The Past," Education Record, October 1933
 "Family Homes," March 16, 1934
 History of the Home Economics Department, spring 1934
 Kane County Home Bureau, May 17, 1934
 Inheritance, December 6, 1934
 Story of the Department of Home Economics, February 20, 1935
 Home Economics Extension, June 20, 1935
 Land Grant College pioneer meeting, October 27, 1935
 Family Homes, January 11, 1938
 Personal recollections of I. Bevier, January 31, 1940
 What is in Thine Hand?, November 1940

Box 15:

Undated manuscripts

Adjustment conferences
 Adult Education
 Architecture
 Art
 Continuation Schools
 Dietetics
 Furnishing
 Greer, Carlotta - Review
 Grindley's address
 Home Economics
 Household Science in a State University
 Housekeeping, new Human Being
 Living Conditions
 Mechanics, home
 Meals
 Miscellaneous
 Munsterberg's Works
 Nutrition Investigations
 Theory and Practice
 Tuskegee, Berea and University of California, notes on Underwood Slides

Diplomas

Iowa State University Doctor of Science, June 9, 1920

U.S.D.A. Certificate for foreign travel, April 28, 1927
College of Wooster, Doctor of Science, June 15, 1936