"A Piaget Derived Curriculum for Early Childhood Education", (Tape), 1973
A cassette tape containing proceedings of a symposium entitled "Piaget-based Curricula for Early Childhood Education: Three Different Approaches", held at a meeting for the Society for Research in Child Development, Philadelphia, March 1973. Includes a reading of Lavatelli's paper by an unidentified person, probably Lilian Katz. Tape also includes papers by Constance Kamii, Rheta De Vries, and David Weikart, and Discussion by Lawrence Kohlberg. See the Typescript of Lavatelli's paper in preceding folder- "Lavatelli--Piaget papers, 1970-73", Box 3, and "Society for Research in Child Development" in Box 1. This tape was apparently sent to her by Charles Hohmann, see a letter to him in "General Correspondence, 1973" in Box 1.
