Sound Recordings, Photographs, Negatives, and Slides:

J. Thomas Hastings Photos, c. 1964-1975

Note: Hastings was the first director of CIRCE.

Cassette Tapes, ca. 1968-69, 1975

Stake on Evaluation 12, 1969: ca. 1968-69

Note: Contains a conversation between Robert Stake and Terry Denny about problems with educational evaluation. The recording was made to send to colleagues in Indiana.

Ramsey Clark at CIRCE on Adversarial Procedures in Evaluation, 10/3/75

Lundgren/APU, undated

Note: This tape appears to be the second in a series with Tape 1 missing. Side A contains a woman reading through a paper starting mid-conclusion. Side B contains a discussion between the woman and a man, presumably Robert Stake.

CIRCE Evaluation Conference, May 11-12, 1969 (2 cassette tapes)

Note: Presents segments of an evaluation conference put on by Robert Stake and CIRCE. Tape 2 is titled Stake & Hively.

CMAS (Colorado Measures of Academic Success) Colorado, Aug., 1970

Note: A 7 inch reel sound recording which mentions the Illinois Gifted Program and could be related to "Classroom Report Slides".

A.E.R.A. (American Educational Research Association) Speech and Slides, ca. 1972

Note: Contains a cassette tape recording of a non-serious symposium for the A.E.R.A. annual meeting for which Robert Stake was the first speaker. Stake gave his speech on "The Seven Principal Cardinals of Educational Evaluation." The slides used by Stake for this speech are also included.

National Sex Equity Demonstration Project Photograph Negatives, c. 1980-83 (2 rolls)

Note: Photo negatives that appear to be of the National Sex Equity Demonstration Project Team at Nova Middle School in Miami.

Case Study Methods In Educational Research "SEEKING SWEETWATER", Robert E. Stake, ca. 1988 (2 cassette tapes)

Note: Two copies of "Seeking Sweetwater," part of a series of tapes sold by AERA on research methods and education featuring Stake. Looks at the increasing popularity of the case study within education as well as objections many researchers have with the case study method of research. Along with Stake, the tape also features the voices of John Erickson, Jennifer McCready, Shirley Chrysler, Don Hodgman, and Alan Knox. The master tape was prepared at WILL Studies at the University of Illinois in December of 1978 and revised in May of 1979.

Allerton Conference Photographs and Negatives, undated

Note: Contains both photographs and negatives that appear to be from a retreat or conference at Allerton Park & Retreat Center in Piatt County, Illinois.

Classroom Report and Title Slides, undated

Note: Contains slides 7-16 of what appears to be a classroom report for the Illinois Gifted Program. May correlate with the "CMAS (Colorado Measures of Academic Success) Colorado, Aug., 1970" sound recording. Also contains title slides with 3 title options: "The Curriculum Specialist," "The Instructional Researcher," and "The Instructional Technologist."

Photograph Negatives, undated (2 rolls)

Note: Two rolls of negatives. One roll appears to contain members of CIRCE posing and the other contains pictures of a classroom visit.

Quarter Inch Open Reel Sound Recordings, undated (2 count)

Stake's Speech, undated

Note: A speech given by Stake about case studies.

Robert and Terry, undated

Note: A short introduction by musician Hank Snow for the memorial of "Linn" after his untimely death. The Memorial was lead by Robert (ostensibly Stake) and Terry (Denny?). No last names are identified.
