

12/9/13

Public Information

Video & Special Projects

Video Publications, 1978, 1980, 1983-97

Box 1:

At the Interview, 2088

Caldecott at Fifty, 2082

Come and See, 2068

Controlling the Confrontation, 2106

Days Online, 2052

Difficult Reference Question, 2053

Does this Answer Your Question?, 2054

Effective Library Program, 2095

Elementary School Librarians, 2083

Facts of Love, 2080

Fast Forward, 2086

Future is Information, 2107

If it Weren't for the Patron, 2081

Info Power Teleconference Highlights, 2089

Kids are Patrons, Too, 2076

Know and Think, 2071

Laugh and Cry, 2070

Librarians Video Primer, 2085

Library Inventory, 2097

Library Show: Merchandise It, 2057

Library Survival Guide, 2074

Library Trustees, 2091

LVM 3:4

4:1 (all of the previous issues, also)

Marketing: a Planned Approach, 2108

Meet & Greet, 2069

Mending, 2094

Move & Do, 2072

On the Job Training, 2079

Online, 2059

A Principal's Analysis, 2093

Picture Books, 2075

School Administrator's Guide, 2090

Sharing Books, 2042

Tales of Love and Terror, 2077

Tales of Plateauing, 2092

Weeding, 2096

Who's First, 2066

12/9/13

2

Choosing the Best in Children's Videos, 2110

Box 2:

-

Box 3:

- #2094

Box 4:

#2095

Box 5:

Copyright Videotapes, Seminar & Workshop, 1978

ALA Satellite Teleconference "Seminar on Copyright," 2-3/4" videotapes, 2 hours, February 7, 1978

Introduction and Scenario

Barbara Ringer, Harry Rosenfield, William North discuss copyright, fair use, electronic technology, library copying and public broadcasting

Appalachian Education Satellite Program workshop on "The New Copyright Law"

2-3/4" videotapes, July 1978

Panel discussion at the University of Kentucky by the library school dean, Copyright Office representative, National Association of School Boards and a High School Librarian, featuring segments of the February 7, 1978 ALA teleconference

Call for America's Libraries/Media Highlights, Washington Week in Review

America's Libraries Change Lives, 1995

Media Highlights, 1995

San Francisco Library CBS Sunday Morning, 1996

Voice of America's Libraries

Inside Libraries, 1997