Box 1: 1870-1879

Correspondence, professional and personal - mostly from Iowa College (Grinnell)

Student Papers, 1876-79

Essays and papers about Chemistry or Literature

"Organic Chemistry" Class Notes, 1881

Class notes from Dr. Remsen's "Elementary Chemistry"

Class notes, Johns Hopkins University, Spring, 1881

General correspondence including: W. L. Borst, Beth Goodrich, Sarah Packard, his mother, Mary P. Noyes, and his sister, Mary C., from 1874-90

Letter Log, 1881-1884

Letters from Albert Shaw, 1884, 1887, 1889

Letters from Ira Remsen, 1884-87

Notes from Noyes' Qualitative Analysis books

Box 2: 1888-1902

Receipts and Memorabilia of European trip (mostly Germany and England), 1888-89

Manuscripts and letters of thanks from chemists for Noyes' Qualitative Analysis, 1887

Noyes' bird watching log, 1889-1910

Letters to Ethel (daughter who died July 1, 1899)

Box 3: 1900-1906

Letters of thanks and comments from chemists about Noyes' Organic Chemistry

Family correspondence with brothers and sisters

Letters to and from Carnegie Institute about Noyes application for a grant of $500

Professional correspondents include M. D. Foster, Charles L. Jackson, Wilhelm Ostwald, Ira Remsen, Alexander Smith, Julius Stieglitz and James Walker.

Letters to and from Samuel W. Stratton, Director of the National Bureau of Standards, on Noyes' appointment as chief chemist, 1902-1903.

Letters of advice from chemists on this appointment, including Edward W. Morley, Theodore W. Richards, Albert Shaw, Alexander Smith and Robert S. Woodard.

Box 4: 1907-1919

Letters concerning Noyes' installation at the University of Illinois, Friday, Oct. 18, 1907, mostly from Presidents and Chemistry Professors at major Universities and Institutes

Correspondence and reports relating to the publication of the Journal of the American Chemical Society, 1907-15

General correspondence, 1907-16, including Karl E. Guthe, Edward W. Morley, Alexander Smith, Theodore W. Richards, George B. Frankforter, Edmund J. James and Albert Shaw.

 Letters to and from Marston T. Bogert, of Columbia University, concerning the American Commission on Organic Nomenclature, 1912-13
 Letters to and from the American Commission on Inorganic Chemical Nomenclature
 Notes on synthetic Ammonia
 General correspondence including Arthur L. Day, Theodore W. Richards, Edward W. Morley, Ira
 Remsen, Julius Stieglitz and Albert Shaw, 1913-14
 Correspondence with publisher and chemists about Noyes' Textbook of Chemistry, 1913-14
 Family correspondence, 1914
 Letters from Marston T. Bogert about the National Research Council on Munitions research, 1917
 A Textbook of Chemistry (1914)

Box 5: 1914-1925

Correspondence relating to reconciliation of the European scientific community, reparations, war guilt, economic conditions, world court, peace, Noyes' pamphlets "Building for Peace" and
 "War a modern Invention," history, International Research Council, 1914 manifesto of 93
 German intellectuals, chemical society meetings and war responsibilities of France,
 Germany, Belgium, Austria, Russia and other powers.

Correspondents include: William E. Borah, Charles Cestre, C. Duisberg, Sidney B. Fay, Walther
 Goebel, Victor Grignard, Herbert Hoover, Waldo G. Leland, Charles Marie, Robert A.
 Mullikan, C. S. Moureu, Paul S. Mowrer, Wilhelm Ostwald, Otto Rahn, A. Stock, Theodore Wieland, Richard Willstätter and Adolf Windaus. Personal correspondence includes correspondence with Howard Division giving excellent details of Noyes' European travels (1923-24).

Box 6: 1924-1926

Manuscript of "Polarity of Valence," 1924

Manuscript and correspondence relating to "The beginning of Accurate Knowledge," 1926

Papers concerning optically active diazo compounds, 1922

Address on "The Development of Science" given at Western State College in Colorado

Correspondence with Richard Willstätter and letters about him with Charles L. Parsons, Secretary of the American Chemical Society and Arthur Lamb, editor of the Journal of the American Chemical Society

Correspondence relating to Noyes' functions as chairman of the Publications Research Committee, AAAS

Correspondence on Chemical matters, especially "Valence," with Linus Pauling, Maurice Huggins and Howard J. Lucas

Box 7: 1926-1927

Manuscripts of "The Relation Between Shared Electrons and Valence." and "Variable Valences"
Correspondence concerning Noyes' memoir of Ira Remsen for the American Chemical Society
Correspondence on the First Congregational Church of Champaign and the Pilgrim Foundation, 1927
Scientific exchanges with Gilbert N. Lewis, Julius Stieglitz, Maurice L. Huggins, Howard J. Lucas,

Lecture Notes and General Correspondence, 1928. Correspondence with Eugene Hart on the integrity of Ira Remsen (1928)
 Scientific correspondence with Harry L. Lochte, Arthur A. Noyes, James B. Conant, F. F. Nord
 Correspondence with James K. Senior on group theory and predictable isomers, atomic theory in general, and relation to organic chemistry
 Correspondence regarding Noyes' lecture tour in the West, April-May, 1929
 Correspondence with Arthur H. Compton on "Chance," deduction, determinism, free will and religion
 Correspondence, notes, manuscripts on "Modern Alchemy," including comments by Farrington Daniels, Roger Adams, Arthur H. Compton, E. E. Slosson, Thomas M. Lowry, and exchanges between the co-authors, W. A. Noyes and Charles Noyes.
 Testimonials of former students and colleagues for the Remsen Memorial Issue of the Journal of the American Chemical Society
 General correspondence with Austin M. Patterson, Gilbert N. Lewis and Julius Stieglitz

Box 10: 1930-1931

Correspondence with Dimas Malone on Noyes' article on Remsen for the Dictionary of American Biography, also manuscript of this article
 Correspondence with and about Samuel W. Parr relating to Noyes' brief biography of Parr.
 Manuscript of "The Electronic Interpretation of Oxidation and Reduction"

Correspondence and manuscripts relating to revision of Noyes' Organic Chemistry
Correspondence and reports of Committee and Nomenclature
Correspondence and reports on Committee on High School Chemistry Libraries (AAAS)
Correspondence relating to Noyes' retention in a lawsuit as an expert by U.S. Gypsum Company
Manuscript on "Color"
Correspondence relating to foreign guests at Century of Progress exposition
Papers and essays on current U.S. and international economic problems
General correspondents on scientific or other subjects including Albert Shaw, Thomas M. Lowry, Roger Adams, Ernest H. Volwiler, Richard Tolman, Harry L. Lochte, Arthur B. Lamb, Austin Patterson, C. P. Snow, Robert S. Mulliken

Box 11: 1932-1934

Scientific manuscripts and correspondence regarding them, including "Types of the Chemical Reaction," "The Existence of Chemically Active Diazo Compounds," "Diazo-Camphor," "The Discovery of the Composition of Water," "Electronic Structure of Inorganic Complexes," and "The Reintegration of Science"
Correspondence on "Types of Chemical Reactions," from Nicholas A. Milas, William C. Bray, Louis P. Hammett, Arthur B. Lamb, Julius Stieglitz
Other correspondents include R. Robinson, George Glosker, James F. Norris, F. E. Ray, James H. Hibben and Robert S. Mulliken
Lengthy exchange with Evan J. Crane, Chairman of the American Chemical Society Nomenclature Committee
Correspondence concerning Noyes' efforts to get Fr. Dr. Hirshberg out of Germany and into the United States
Letters to a Hitlerite
German newspaper clippings

Box 12: 1935-36

Manuscript of "The Forward Way in Chemistry" and a biography of Edward W. Washburn for the National Academy of Sciences
Most of the correspondence is on scientific problems, in particular Noyes' interest in atomic structure and physical chemistry. His "Electronic Theories" is discussed by Arthur Lamb and the referrers, and by James Hibben, Robert S. Mulliken, Julius Stieglitz and Nevil V. Sidgwick. Correspondence with William C. Bray on Gilbert N. Lewis, with Harry Gilman on Linus Pauling's theories on..."Chemical Bond and Chemical Structure."

Box 14: 1937-1939

Manuscript of eighth edition, revised of Qualitative Analysis. Diazo camphor infrared spectra.

Correspondence on "Holism" and other religious topics.

Manuscript on "Conscientious Objectors"

Correspondence with Frank Boas, chairman of the Committee for Democracy and Intellectual Freedom, and with representatives of liberal and leftist organizations.

Manuscript and correspondence with Linus Pauling on "Ionization and Electrolytic Dissociations"

Box 15: 1939-1941

Notes on National Academy of Science meeting in Madison in October 1941. Correspondence on Civil Rights and domestic problems with Franz Boas' committee.
 Manuscript and correspondence on "Philosophy of a Senescent"
 Correspondence on Disarmament and War
 Letters on molecular structure
 Correspondence from Evan J. Crane and other scientists on nomenclature.

Box 16:

Correspondence relating to the editing of "Chemical Monographs" of the American Chemical Society, including relations with contributors, publisher, referees, publication board and officers of the society, 1926-30.

Box 17: "Chemical Monographs," 1928-1933

Box 18: "Chemical Monographs," 1931-1936

Box 19: "Chemical Monographs," 1936-1937; Also includes biographical material on William A. Noyes, including tributes, memoirs, letters, reminiscences and articles. Virginia Bartow's 80th birthday.

Box 20:
