

15/7/50

Liberal Arts and Sciences

English

Ernest Bernbaum Papers, 1788, 1791-1834, 1853-1950, 1958

Box 1:

Biographical and Provenance Note

Flensburgsches Wochenblatt für Jedermann, 1788, 1793-1834*Kjøbenhavn's Aften-Post*, 1791*Kvindernes Blad*, June 19, 1907

Wordsworth Centenary, 1950

Cockermouth Commemoration Souvenir Program, newspaper clippings

Offprints and Articles by Others, 1855, 1868, 1956, 1958

Guide and Anthology of Romanticism, Correspondence regarding Corrections, 1948-49

Engravings and Plates: "Prospect af Kiøbstaden Corsøer I Sædland," "Prospect af Det Kongelig Slott Friderichsborg," and "Die Provinzialen auf dem Congress zu Philadelphia"

Literary Chronology Notes

Bernbaum/Christiansen Family Correspondence

Ole Bernbaum [father of Ernest Bernbaum] to Mary/Marie [Ole's sister]

November 1878-November 1882

August 1891-February 1893

Ole Bernbaum Daily Memorandum Book, 1866Contains shipboard observations, guides to navigational observations, lists of officers and passengers of Susquehanna, record of expenses, and diary entries.

Last Will and Testaments of Ole Bernbaum and Ludwig Christiansen 1883, 1885

Ernest Christiansen (brother of Mary, Ludwig, and Dorothea Christiansen)

Correspondence, from Flensburg and Copenhagen 1853-56

To Marie Christiansen

December 1853-March 1868 in Danish from European locations

Box 2:

October 1857-September 1874 in Danish from European and Asian ports including Cardiff, Plymouth, Rotterdam, Bangkok, Penang, Singapore, Amoy(?), and Rangoon

December 1879-November 1880 in English from on board S.S. Kalahome from Penang, Straits of Malacca to Germany

Ludwig Christiansen to Ernst Christiansen, in German 1855-1869

Ludwig Christiansen to Marie Christiansen, in English, from Malaysian Ports to the United States, December 1880-April 1883

To Marie from Dorothea Christiansen Bernbaum, Dorothea and Ole, Fatter Richard, and others 1870-1891

Unidentified letter fragments