

15/10/10

Liberal Arts and Sciences

Geography

Honors Theses, 1973-1980

Box 1:

The Perception of Change: Reactions to an Environmental Display of Selected Areas in Champaign, Illinois in Sequence Over the Past Century. By Joy Deborah Fisher, May 29, 1973.

A Local Area Study in Geography for Use in Junior High School. By Teresa Hunter, May 30, 1973.

The Ecology of Strip-Mined Land: East Central Illinois. By Marc Decker, May 31, 1973.

Locating a Puerto Rican Superport Using Economic and Environmental Considerations. By Christine L. Dailey, May 21, 1974.

Summer Observations on Sediment Processes at Rosewood Beach, Highland Park, Illinois. By Patricia Drake, Fall 1974.

Development of Dessication: Possible Effects of Deforestation Upon the Water Balance of the Amazon Basin. By Robert Wise, December 1974.

Determination of the Impact of Deforestation of Marginal Land for Agricultural Production in Central Illinois. By Jackie Blue Lichtenwalter, October 12, 1975.

Winchester Odyssey. By Robert Sims Reid, January 1975.

The Relationship Between Land Use and Site Quality in Rural Western Puerto Rico. By Lori A. Greenstein, Spring 1980.

Statistical Analysis of Slope Reformation. By Steve Berg, undated.

The Location of Industrial Firms: A Case Study of South Holland, Illinois. By Joanne Morgan, undated.

The Best Land Use of the Tropical Savannas of Uganda. By Alice Mary Vogel, undated.

Minimum Estimatable Differences in the Graduated Circle. By Robert Wise, undated.