

15/13/27

Liberal Arts and Sciences

History

William S. Robertson Papers, 1910-1947

Box 1:

MANUSCRIPTS

France and Latin-American Independence, 1939 (3 folders, chapters 1-7, 8-12, 13-16)

Pages 650-714 plus a few other scattered pages are missing. The manuscript was delivered as the Albert Shaw Lecture on Diplomatic History, 1939, at the Walter Hines Page School of International Relations.

"The Memorabilia of Augustín de Iturbide" (c. 1945)

"Latin America, the Monroe Doctrine, and the League of Nations," August, 1930

"Latin America and the League of Nations" (not known if Robertson is the author)

Bibliography I - "South American Books in the University of Illinois Library," June 14, 1916

Bibliography II - Latin American history from native civilizations to post-independence

Bibliography III - United States relations with Latin America

Bibliography IV - Spanish language sources on Latin American history from native civilizations to post-independence

CORRESPONDENCE

Correspondence, 1922-1934

Nine letters dealing with Robertson's projects and with procurement of illustrations. Also included is a copy of his will. Two of the correspondents are Helio Lobo, consul General of Brazil (1922) and Roscoe R. Hill, member of a financial commission of the Nicaraguan government (1923). Included are letters from Charles F. Adams (1903) and Theodore Roosevelt Jr. (1930) on Robertson's History of Latin American Nations.

Correspondence, 1931 Jordan Herbert Stabler transmitting a copy of his Bolivar: December 1830 - December 1930 in Memoriam (1930).

Correspondence, Robertson to Robert A. Humphreys, 1935, 1937

Correspondence, 1937-41, Graduate Program Requests

Correspondence, 1937-40, Latin American Studies and Conferences

ILLUSTRATIONS AND PHOTOGRAPHS

Illustrations - Bolívar

Illustrations - History of Argentina (2 folders)

Illustrations - Life of Miranda (2 folders)

Illustrations - Miranda's Diary

Illustrations - Rise of the Spanish American Republics

Negatives - Presidents of Argentina

Cross reference- Approximately 10 nitrate negatives and one damaged glass plate have been removed from file and disposed of; 5 nitrate negatives have been reproduced and disposed of.

Remaining positive prints of Juan Manuel de Rosas, Justo José de Urquiza, Bartolomé Mitre, Domingo Sarmiento, and unidentified man

Photographs - Mexico and Cuba (c. 1941)

Photographs - Mexico and Spain (?)

Photographs - Portugal, Santiago de Compostela, Toledo (May 1932)

Photographs and Illustrations - Related to general research on Latin America

Includes portraits of Simón Bolívar, José de San Martín, Francisco de Miranda

Photostats - Letters and documents relating to Francisco de Miranda

NEWSPAPER CLIPPINGS AND NOTES

Newspaper - "El Nuevo Diario," Caracas, Venezuela, 1913

Cross reference- Newspaper removed from series and entrusted to the University of Illinois History, Philosophy and Newspaper Library

Newspaper Clippings, 1913-1946

Clippings all deal with Latin America, with the largest number coming from around 1930

Newspaper Clippings, 1930-1933 - Bolivian Revolution, 1930, and Chaco War, 1933

Notes - José de San Martín (See Box 2)

Notes - "League of Nations," ca. 1920

Documents, commemorative - Printed on the centennial of the "Passage Over the Andes," 1917

Document - Manuscript letter from Vicente de Rojas addressed to Antonio Amar y Borbón, 1806

PUBLICATIONS

Publications, 1910-1923

These folders contain reprints of 25 articles by Robertson. Among the topics dealt with are diplomacy, the Monroe Doctrine, recognition, Francisco de Miranda's papers, intervention, and Agustín de Iturbide.

Ricardo Levene, Historia Argentina, Tomo I, 1928

Box 2: (Legal Size)

Publications 1926-1947

Excerpt of draft on Argentinian industry after 1927

Student Papers

Two student papers of unknown date

Publications, 1910-1945

Nine publications by others than Robertson.

Ben Crossen, Our Southern Neighbors in Review, wall chart on Latin America, 1940

American Historical Association Life Membership Certificate, 1928

Notes - José de San Martín

A collection of notes taken from books and other sources dealing largely with José de San Martín.

Oversize Box 34:

The Hispanic Society of America Membership Notice, 1926