Box 1:

Six Page Biographical Sketch of Professor Zeleny by his wife, 1944

Valedictory address given at Minneapolis high school, June 5, 1894

University of Minnesota Papers and experiment sheets, 1896-1898

Zeleny Family Correspondence, 1897-1909. This correspondence with brothers Anthony, John, Frank, and Joseph concerns family and social affairs, graduate education, financial affairs, university affairs, the University of Minnesota (5/6/07, 2/9/08, 3/20/08, and 2/13/09), hunting, football, scientific apparatus, physics, zoology research, and faculty appointments. Most of the correspondence is with brother John, head of the Physics Department at the University of Minnesota, and brother Anthony, also on the physics faculty at Minnesota.

Italian Remembrances - Opera librettos and memorabilia acquired in 1902-1903 at the Stazione Zoologica in Naples, 1902-1903.

Lecture Notes taken at the University of Chicago on General Embryology (E. B. Wilson), February - June, 1902; Physiology of Development (Frank R. Lillie), October - December, 1903; Regeneration (Charles M. Child) April -June, 1904.

Box 2:

Indiana University Lecture Notes, 1905-1908. Lectures given by Professor Zeleny on the comparative anatomy of vertebrates, general zoology, advanced zoology and related notes.

Correspondence, 1890-1909, (A-Q). Arranged alphabetically by correspondent and primarily from 1897-1909. The correspondence concerns graduate work at Columbia University and the university of Chicago, scholarships and appointments, zoological manuscripts and research, publications, field and laboratory work, specimens, departmental affairs and research at the University of Indiana and its Winona Lake Biological Station, regeneration, experimental embryology and heredity.

Correspondents include: Arthur M. Banta, Charles B. Davenport, Carl H. Eigenmann, Max M. Ellis, Joseph E. Guthrie, Frank E. Lutz, Daniel T. MacDougal, Alfred G. Mayer, Thomas H. Morgan, Henry F. Nachtrieb, Fernandus Payne.

The Most significant correspondents are Davenport, Eigenmann, Lutz, Morgan

Box 3:

Correspondence 1890-1909, continued, R-Z.

Correspondents include: Will Scott, Mabel Smallwood, and Edmund B. Wilson. The most significant of these is Wilson.

Part of Eigenmann's correspondence is filed under I - Indiana.

Correspondence with S. A. Forbes is under I - Illinois and with D. A. Andrews under J - John Hopkins.

The papers include correspondence relating to Zeleny's appointment at the University of Illinois, June - July, 1909, 1910.

Correspondence 1910-1914 arranged chronologically, includes correspondence with Professor Henry B. Ward relating to Departmental affairs at the University of Illinois
