

41/20/119
Student Affairs
Students' Scrapbooks and Papers
Clarence W. Fick Scrapbook, 1908-1913, 1952, 1962, 1999

Item Listing

- 1-5 University admittance certificate (Dec. 1, 1908), classmate autograph pages
- 6-36 Photographs and newsclippings concerning university buildings, the 1012th Infantry regiment, Colonel Fechet, friends and classmates
- 37-64 Photographs of sporting events, military band, class rivalry posters and competitions, basketball league, UI building and campus scenes, friends and classmates
- 65-89 Photographs of sporting events, UI building and campus scenes, theatrical performances, President Taft's 1911 visit (#76, 85-88), Fick's military regiment, friends and classmates
- 90-105 Photographs of athletes, Fick's class basketball league, campus scenes, friends and classmates
- 106-114 Photographs of campus scenes and classmates, newsclippings from the Daily Illini concerning university and intermural sporting events, Fick's drill report, General Assembly scholarship examination materials, and Morton High School's 1908 commencement invitation
- 115-124 1910 Military Day materials, Maypole Dance flyer, newsclippings concerning sporting events, class rivalries, military orders and theatrical and musical performances, and military band concert, track and field meet, and theatre programs
- 125-135 Personal correspondence, commencement week program (1908), newspaper clippings from the Daily Illini and the Illinois Alumni News concerning sporting events, Colonel Fechet's retirement, commencement, Class of 1912 reunions, and Fick's 1912 Commencement Week booklet
- 136-162 Photographs of 1912 class basketball league, campus scenes, athletes, sporting events, class competitions, "hobo band," friends and classmates, newsclippings from the Daily Illini concerning campus life, humor, and sporting events, military band program, postcards and correspondence, and a biographical sketch written by Fick's son-in-law, Alfred P. Furnish
- 163 UI Diploma of Clarence W. Fick, 1912